Feeling disposed to comply with your wishes, we resume the subject commenced last night, not that we expect to elaborate so as to instruct you, but you may possibly derive some amusement through a means but little anticipated. Your object was more to show your wife the power a spirit could exercise over your mentality, by producing something you feel you could not produce unaided by such power. Therefore are we anxious to convince her that a spirit, under right conditions, is capable of all you have represented. With these few remarks, we will commence our essay. To elaborate an essay, based upon the above single word Paper, seems almost absurd, but it is our province to try. Paper, at the present period, has become an article of vast appreciation, from which one standpoint you may view it, whether as auxiliary to mans happiness, or otherwise. Look at the condition of the man who requires a loan at the hands of another; does he think the lender would trust to him a sum of money without security in writing. We think a prudent man would hesitate to do so. You, and some others, might, under the influence of a strong psychological control, be led into such an unwary act, while the mass of mankind would avoid the risk. With the same desire to oblige his neighbor, think you a man, whose circumstances were limited, would dare take another's word without ample...
