For just about as long as Robbie Salvage can remember, the only thing he has ever really wanted is a pet dog. Dylan, his best friend, totally understands how Robbie feels, for exactly the same reason, but the two have come to the conclusion that, A dog is never going to happen. So when a dog follows Robbie home from the park one afternoon, what on earth is he going to do with him? The only hope is to hide him in the shed then, first thing in the morning, take the dog back to the park. However, Robbie hadn't counted on the involvement of young cousin William and the dog escaping into the house and a room full of anti-dog grown-ups. As the comedy continues in this second book in The Fantasy World of Robbie Salvage series, the 11 year old struggles with how he will get himself out of yet another scrape, let alone how a senior member of the British Royal Family gets into the story.
