BookBaby, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. A TV crew arrives at a sprawling deserted building to make a Ghost Hunter TV show, but all is not well. The show is being cancelled due to being discredited as remorselessly and cynically faked and this is now to be their final assignment. Cameron, their director, is suicidal due to the collapse of his marriage and career, but happens upon the idea of creating a spectacular final show. He concludes he must prove himself with a lie so great people will think it must be the truth and to achieve this, secretly decides to pay the ultimate price. Deanna, his colleague, has long held a candle for Cameron and as his plan progresses; she becomes increasingly suspicious and alarmed about his real purpose. His plan is put on hold though, when it becomes apparent that for the first time they might have stumbled upon the real thing, an entity that appears only in reflections and takes a different shape to all who see it. Reinvigorated, Cameron wants to capture this on film. Ironically, his colleagues are terrified, but he manages to coerce them back into the building. Once inside though the crew seeking to capture the spirit becomes the prey. Trapped inside, with no mobile phone signals and all exits suddenly sealed, the ancient and sprawling building becomes a labyrinth and one by one the crew come face to face with the wraith, a spirit as old as the world itself, powerful and knowing beyond measure. It has a purpose, can see deeply inside them and knows what weakness, what fear is so profound that they simply cannot bear to countenance it. It uses this knowledge to pursue and corner them,...
