She is loving living the bachelorette lifestyle in Manhattan and since she makes her own money she does things on her own terms and she loves it. She can sleep with who she wants, when she wants and not have to feel guilty about it. However, her dating life takes a dramatic twist when she begins to develop real genuine feelings for a man she is dating. Is it possible she might have found love when she least expected it? The big question is, what is the real reason that Crystal has for not wanting to ever stay in a relationship? The truth is about to come out and the truth is going to shock everyone, even those who think they know her best.
