Still more interest in these privileges and in the protection of foreigners in the Orient, particularly in the interior of Turkey and of China, has since then developed, and with items of news about the political conditions and the commercial exploitation of those regions appearing in the press from day to day, there is a growing desire for better and more fundamental knowledge of the formal relations sustained by the eastern and western governments. There have been published in England and on the continent a number of excellent works that deal with extraterritoriality and consular jurisdiction. The works to whose authors I am most indebted are: Martens, Das Consular-wesen und die Consularjurisdiction im Orient; Feraud-Giraud, La juridiction frangaise dans les echelles...
