E2 2009n OCLC Number: (OCoLC)613333786 Subject: Predatory lending -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 retain qualified employees. In 17 of the past 20 years, military and Federal personnel have received equal pay increases, yet the Presidents budget proposes an across-the-board adjustment of only 2. 6 percent while the military would receive 4. 1 percent in increase. This 2. 6 percent increase is less than the FEPCA formula and fails to close the pay gap between Federal and private sector work-ers. How do you justify the lack of parity in pay And how would you address the competitive pay gap that exists in government Mr. B. I want to first begin by saying I fully support the pro-LAIR posals contained in the Presidents budget. The way that we would justify this is that we are on a war footing right now and a war footing requires us to engage in the allocation of scarce resources. It is important to consider the 2. 6 percent proposed increase in a broader context however. The 2. 6 percent is an increase across-the-board adjustment that will be given to all employees. Employ-ees will also be able to avail themselves of their longevity increases or otherwise known as within-grade increases. Employees will also be eligible for other performance-based increases as well, such as quality step increases, career ladder and merit promotions, incen-tive awards, and retention bonuses. But you raise a very good question of how we will look at this in terms of comparability. And that is one of the areas that Direc-tor Kay James is beginning to look at and has been talking about and...
