Events which happened seventy years ago are perhaps rather too far off to be dragged aptly into a mere conversation. Of course the year 1831 is for us an historical date, one of these fatal years when in the presence of the worlds passive indignation and eloquent sympathies we had once more to murmur Vo Victis and count the cost in sorrow. Not that we were ever very good at calculating, either, in prosperity or in adversity. Thats a lesson we could never learn, to the great exasperation of our enemies who have bestowed upon us the epithet of Incorrigible. . . . The speaker was of Polish nationality, that nationality not so much alive as surviving, which persists in thinking, breathing, speaking, hoping, and suffering in its grave, railed in by a million of bayonets and triple-sealed with the seals of three great empires. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
