Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Public Pensions to Widows With Children: A Study of Their Administration, in Several American Cities [For the three months beginning August 1, 1912, Mr. Carstens was commissioned by the Russell Sage Foundation to study the actual working of public pensions to widows with children in certain western communities. He spent several weeks in San Francisco, six weeks in Chicago, and much shorter periods in Kansas City, Missouri, and in Milwaukee. In Chicago, investigators made, under his direction, a study of one hundred of the pensioned families. His findings are printed as a contribution toward the practical study of a question now attracting a great deal of attention.] Introduction In January of 1909 about two hundred men and women met in the city of Washington upon the invitation of the President of the United States, and held what was known as the White House Conference on the Care of Dependent Children. The first of the resolutions there adopted reads as follows: Home life is the highest and finest product of civilization. It is the great molding...
