Love is not blind, but I alone, who steer My wishes headlong unto death: Love is no child, but I; who in a breath Laugh and lament, and hope and fear: What folly then to speak of flames of Love! Love s fire from untamed passion springs, High and presumptuous thoughts are Cupid s wings, Or hopes as vain on which he soars above. Love has no chains, Love bears no bow To take, or strike the sound, and free: No power has he save that which we bestow; A poet s fiction gave him birth, The dream of fools, adored on earth By none except the sons of vanity.
